

LIC Whole Life Insurance Plan

1. Plan Overview

A Whole Life insurance policy provides coverage for the entire lifetime of the insured. Unlike term insurance, it does not expire after a set term. It combines life coverage with a savings component (cash value). LIC's Jeevan Umang is a popular whole life plan offering annual survival benefit from the age of 100 years.

2. Key Features

- Life cover up to age 100 years
- Annual Survival Benefit paid from end of premium payment term till age 99
- Lump sum paid on death or on completion of 100 years (whichever is earlier)
- Participation in profits through bonuses
- Option to take loan against policy
- Rider benefits available
